

BANANA SHIRE COUNCIL

ENTERPRISE BARGAINING UPDATE

NOTICE TO MEMBERS EMPLOYED AT: BANANA SHIRE COUNCIL

The Industrial Registrar has approved the process to be undertaken by the Transport Workers' Union of Australia Union of Employees (Queensland Branch) to allow members to vote on whether they wish to have the right to take protected industrial action in support of reaching a Certified Agreement.

All financial members of the TWU employed at Banana Shire Council are invited to attend a meeting to vote on whether they wish to take protected industrial action.

In support of reaching a Certified Agreement, members will be asked whether they support the taking of protected industrial action which involve one or more of the following taken separately or consecutively:

- Stoppages of work for 1 hours
- Stoppages of work for 2 hours
- Stoppages of work for 4 hours
- Stoppages of work for 8 hours
- Indefinite or periodic bans on overtime
- Indefinite or periodic bans on paperwork
- Indefinite or periodic bans on operating a two-way radio (outside designated council construction sites or queries)
- Indefinite or periodic bans on answering mobile phone calls
- Indefinite or periodic bans on washing trucks
- Indefinite or periodic bans on cleaning asphalt residual build up on/in truck tipper
- The wearing of a TWU hat/cap during work hours.
- Indefinite or periodic bans on emptying/maintaining or cleaning silos

Members will also be asked to indicate if they wish to have the right to take protected action up until a new agreement is made.

A meeting will be held at the following time and location:

- Council Depot at Auburn Street, Biloela on Thursday 20th September 2018 at 5:45am

n.b. Members who are unable to attend the meeting can vote by e-mail or phone on the proposed actions by sending an e-mail to: lee.norris@twuqld.org.au by COB Thursday 20th September 2018 or by calling Lee Norris on 0417 744 518 by COB Thursday 20 September 2018.
